

Please do not change the rules on how many stations corporations can own. Others have amply described why. The appearance of this administration as a corporate pawn is very distressing to this registered Republican. Good democracy depends on a variety of news sources-this rule change will limit that variety.